Public Presentation

A Talk on Hope and Healing

Wednesday 26th October 2016

Norma Woodcock will be presenting a talk on hope and healing.

We all seek hope, wholeness, integration and healing, especially in the times in which we live.

Norma believes that this is God's plan for each of us and she will be taking a Gospel story for her talk to illustrate this wonderful truth.

Title: The Healing of Our Whole Persons

Date: Wednesday 26th October 2016

Time: 7.30pm to 8.30pm.

Venue: St Benedict’s Church, Cnr Canning Highway & Ardross St Appinns, WA.

Cost: Collection.

[Cardinal Education staff can obtain hours for Faith Formation Accreditation - Registration fee $10 per session]

Presenter Profile: Norma Woodcock is the Founder & Director of The Centre for Catholic Spiritual Development & Prayer. She is a presenter at State & National Level with 35 years experience.

Norma's 3 new imaginative Meditations for Emotional Healing and Healing of Memories will be available on the night.

Maritime Day, Victoria Quay
Saturday 12 November, 10am-4pm

Here’s a fantastic, fun-filled family day at the annual Maritime Day celebrations on Fremantle Port Victoria Quay.

FREE!

Dive beneath the waves and view the Royal Australian Navy’s state-of-the-art vessel, HMAS Toowoomba. Watch thextreme show and enjoy a quality lunch and informative talks.

Attention all to the submarine HMAS Sheean, Australia’s only commissioned armed nuclear-powered submarine, and the open day at HMAS Perth.

Join in the fun at the Australia Day Bicentennial celebrations, take part in the Victoria Quay boat races or watch the amazing helicopter displays by Royal Australian Navy equipment.

Maritime Day celebrates the maritime industry in the western port of Fremantle, and promotes information about marine jobs and a career.

Find out about all the events at Victoria Quay from 10am to 4pm, and visit the exhibitions and displays.

For more information, contact Joanne Doherty on 9450 3773 or email joanne.doherty@fremantle.wa.gov.au
